15th Annual Regional
Stewardship Conference

Saturday, April 30, 2016
9:00 am—5:30 pm

Charlotte, NC

Come learn from national and regional experts on best practices for introducing and growing stewardship activities in small, medium and large parishes.

An Invitation...

We cordially invite you to attend the Regional Stewardship Conference on Saturday, April 30, 2016.

This collaborative effort by the Dioceses of Charlotte, Charleston, Raleigh, Savannah and the Archdiocese of Atlanta, is an excellent opportunity for you to learn from lay and ordained stewards from parishes across the Southeast.

Who will benefit from attending this conference?

Anyone interested in embracing stewardship as a way of life will benefit from attending the conference. Whether a priest, deacon, parish staff member, or engaged parishioner, our goal is for you to receive the tools and motivation to take your parish's stewardship efforts to the next level. The conference offers compelling and practical workshops, interactive forums, presentations and discussions around stewardship, teamwork, and innovative parish programs.

Featuring:

Leisa Anslinger

Keynote Speaker

Co-Director of Catholic Life and Faith, a center for leadership development to help pastoral leaders engage their people in living faith.

Living as stewards is a wonderful and compelling way of life as disciples of Jesus Christ. How may we help one another to grow as good and faithful stewards? How might we encourage others to embrace stewardship as a way of life? Let us build bridges to one another and to the people we encounter, drawing all to a faith-filled, fruitful way of life!
