Keynote Speaker

Joel Stepanek

We are not simply guests of God, but sharers in the mission of inviting everyone to God's table. The time for silence is past; it is time to become a voice of hope.

Joel Stepanek has been actively involved in ministry for over ten years and is currently the Director of Resource Development for Life Teen International where he creates engaging youth ministry resources for middle and high school students. He is the author of two books, and received his Master's degree in religious education from Fordham University in New York City.

Joel will also be offering a workshop during session 1.

The Plurals Generation: How they use media & what that means to the adults who care about Them.

Did you know that the current generation of kids is called "Plurals"? Did you know that they are "digital natives"? Do you know what it means to be a "digital native"? This session answers these questions and shares new data about the Plurals generation, how they use digital tools to experience the world, and what this information means to those of us who want to craft strategies to protect kids as they grow to fulfillment.

Back to the Fundamentals (Part 1)

Fr. Eric Tellez & Tricia Hoyt

Catholicism 101

This lively, fun and interactive workshop with Fr. Eric and Tricia Hoyt will share some of the most interesting and least understood aspects of our faith. This workshop will continue in session 2.

This workshop will explore the "Sandwich Generation" research and discuss the stresses and blessings we encounter at this time of our lives. We will also explore resources and coping strategies.

MVPope

Cathy Olds

Pope Francis' Focus on Social Justice

Pope Francis reminds us that the goal of Christian faith is to be holy, and the way to holiness is through a merciful heart, open to God and the world. This workshop will celebrate the gift we have in this pope and explore his unique approach to proclaiming the Gospel. We will discuss some of his writings and discover what this humble leader asks of us as we walk with him in this Church of Mercy.

Hail Mary Pass

Paul Hillebrand & Mary Permoda

Prayer Leads You Home

How do we live our life where prayer is more than the last resort? Come and learn how we can make each day into a life of prayer. Through experiencing different forms of prayer, we will seek to nurture the practice of private and communal prayer. Come ready to pray!
